Summer in Sun Peaks.

The options are endless for your team building, meetings or incentive group. See below for a sneak peek into what a day could look like in Sun Peaks. Stroll through the village, listen to live concerts, relax at the spa or discover the shops and cafés.

These are just a few ways you can make the most of your BC summer days in Sun Peaks:

Explore the Alpine

Head up the chairlift and experience the alpine wild flowers that Sun Peaks is known for. Once you reach the top of the chairlift you can venture on a leisurely hike through the flowers to the 'Top of the World', head out on the cross country or downhill biking trails or enjoy a cold beverage on the patio of the Sunburst Lodge before riding the chair back down. Guided tours are available for hiking, cross country bike and downhill biking.

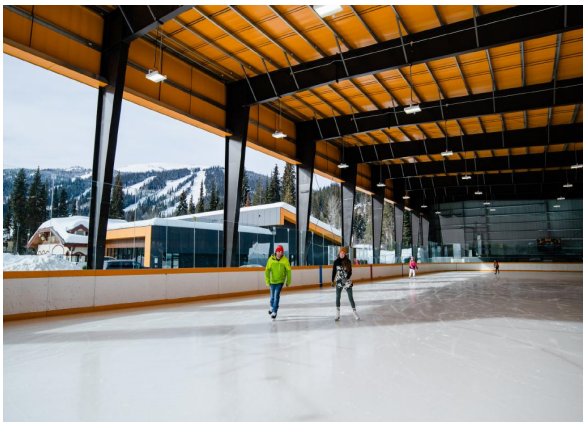

Experience Axe Throwing

If you are looking for something thrilling your whole group can take part in Cleavage Axe Co. will hit the spot. A truly memorable and fun activity. Your axe coaches will teach you the basics in about 10 minutes and then you can try your luck at the bullseye or compete in some fun games with your friends and colleagues. It is an axe-perience not to be missed.

Golfing in the Mountains

Sun Peaks offers a one-of-a-kind golfing experience with the greens located at 1,200 metres above sea level, making the course British Columbia's highest elevation course. Surrounded by natural foliage and panoramic mountain views, the challenging 18-hole par 72 Graham Cooke designed course winds through the valley and amongst the three surrounding mountains, Tod, Sundance, and Morrisey. The 6,400 yard course offers risk and reward opportunities intended to appeal to every level of golfer.

Winter in Sun Peaks.

Our winter adventures can be tailored to your specific needs, ensuring your entire team has the opportunity to participate and enjoy these fun activities. Your group can head out on an exhilarating dog sled adventure, snowmobile tours combined with campfire cookouts, or a guided mountain tour of our three diverse mountains just to name a few.

At Sun Peaks Resort you'll find BC winter activities for everyone.

Snowshoeing Adventures

Venture onto our winter playground on snowshoes. Your team building experience can be catered to your needs and can include adventure challenges and team relays. Tours can include a night time snowshoe with a campfire cookout, a strenuous journey out to McGillivray Lake, or an alpine snowshoe experience where you will see stunning views from Tod Mountain that will take your breath away. Custom tours are the perfect way to accommodate your groups schedule and can be arranged to suit any level of ability.

The Alpine Fondue & Starlight Descent

Board the Sunburst Express chairlift for an exclusive twilight ride up to the Sunburst Mid Mountain Restaurant. A warm welcome awaits at the top, where you'll be transported to the Alps with a hearty cheese and chocolate fondue meal. After dinner you will descend down the 5 Mile run back to the warm glow of the village lights with your guide. The starlit sky is the perfect backdrop for the ski down, and is a great way to end a day on the mountain.

Skating

Enjoy the magic of winter while skating at the covered, open-air, NHL-sized ice rink. Heated dressing rooms allow you to keep warm while getting ready even on the chilliest days. Just a short walk from the center of the village, next to the Sun Peaks Centre, the rink is conveniently located close to many amenities and accommodations. Private bookings or public skating times are available throughout the winter season with skate rentals available on site.

Tucked in a powdery pocket in the Interior of British Columbia, you'll find Canada's second largest ski area. Sun Peaks is a 45-minute transfer from the Kamloops Airport, after a short connecting flight from Vancouver or Calgary International Airports. The alpine village features nine hotels and lodges lining a ski-through village, alongside 45+ restaurants and shops. Three interconnecting mountains encircle the pedestrian-only village and are covered in light, dry snowfall that's complemented by award-winning grooming. Of the slopes, a myriad of bucket list activities await, such as ice fishing, snowshoeing, and snowmobiling.
