

Early Termination and Refund Option (the “Option”):

Subject to the exceptions, limitations and other provisions of this Option, a season pass holder who has purchased the Option is entitled to early termination of its season pass holder rights and obtain a refund as set out below in the event of:

- Injury, death, pregnancy or onset of a sickness of the pass holder prevents the pass holder from participating in skiing or snowboarding for the remainder of the season; or
- A pass holder is involuntarily transferred by his/her employer making it necessary to move his/her residence outside a 200 kilometre radius from Sun Peaks, providing that the date of transfer is at least 45 days after purchase of the season pass.
- Stay at home order. You are unable to use your pass because the municipality, county, state, province, or country in which your Permanent Residence is located is subject to a “quarantine,” “stay-at-home,” “shelter-in-place” or other comparable mandatory governmental order lasting thirty (30) or more consecutive days. Your “Permanent Residence” refers to your fixed, permanent and principal home for legal and tax purposes.
- Tourist visa rejection. You are unable to use your pass because of a tourist visa rejection that prevents your entry into Canada.
- Travel restrictions. You are unable to use your pass because of a government-imposed prohibition on your entry into Canada that affects all similarly situated travelers.

The right to exercise the Option commences on the date the fee is paid and terminates at the conclusion of the 2021–22 Sun Peaks Resort LLP winter operations.

Refund Schedule:

Upon acceptance by Sun Peaks Resort LLP of a permitted early termination, the refund will be as follows:

- Prior to the official winter opening on November 20, 2021, 100% of purchase price.
- Until December 31, 2021, 50% of the purchase price.
- Until January 31, 2022, 25% of the purchase price.
- After January 31, 2022, no refund will be issued.

Refund Schedule:

Upon acceptance by Sun Peaks Resort LLP of a permitted early termination for stay at home order, tourist visa rejection or travel restrictions, the refund will be based on pass holder days used, as follows:
