

Biography:

Sage Hills Singers

Our name represents the Kamloops area, Tk'emlúps known to the Secwépemc people as "where the rivers meet" and where we make our home.

Sage Hills formed in the winter of 2003; we have travelled to powwows throughout BC, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, California, Idaho and Washington. Our group consists of several different tribal affiliations: Stoney, Sioux, Blood, Shuswap, Carrier, Cree and Sto'lo First Nations.

Sage Hills has released four (4) CD's:

- 2004, "Go for What You Know" dedicated to our mothers
- 2011, "Sage Hills" self titled
Named a finalist for "Best Powwow CD – Traditional" by the 2011 Aboriginal Peoples Choice Music Awards and the 2011 Canadian Aboriginal Music Awards, produced by Crazy Cutz Records and dedicated to singer Late John Jules
- 2013, "Grandfathers" produced by Crazy Cutz Records

Sage Hills Facebook Page

Sage Hills Round Dance Live 2021 - YouTube

<https://www.reverbnation.com/crazycutzrecords/songs>