The Franziskus Chapel

Our charming mid-mountain chapel was constructed in 1999 by Peter Stumboeck, the owner and operator of Sun Peaks Lodge at the time. Peter felt strongly that Sun Peaks should have a chapel and pursued the idea bringing it to life and the enchanting fairy tale chapel was built. Authentic in nature and true to form, the bell that sits atop the chapel was brought from Bavaria and the paintings throughout the chapel are the works of Rudi Schmid, also of Bavarian descent.

The mid-mountain chapel was named after a dear friend of Peter Stumboeck, Franz Brandstetter, who passed away in a hiking accident around the time the chapel was built. To honour his friend, Peter devoted the chapel to him and named it Franziskus Chapel. Saint Franziskus, a German monk, was a patron of the animals in Germany and he also protects our animals, who are depicted in the paintings throughout the chapel.

In 2000 Peter Stumboeck passed away, and the chapel and hotel are now operated by Mario and Silvia Erler, of Germany. Currently, the chapel is used during the ski season to celebrate Mass on Sundays, Christmas and Easter. Year round, it is available for weddings and is booked through the Sun Peaks Lodge.

“ My husband and I had our wedding at Sun Peaks on Dec. 17, 2016. It was absolutely wonderful! The staff were very helpful and worked with us on many different issues. The food was absolutely delicious! The atmosphere was sincerely magical.

—Michelle C. December, 2016

“ Thank you so much for everything that you did! The wedding was absolutely perfect. And our room was absolutely grand and a wonderful place for us to all get together and meet and eat and drink on the Friday. And dinner at Bella Italia was wonderful as well. And Sunpeaks was just the perfect location for a wedding...especially with family coming from out of town. Everyone, including the kids had so much fun with all that is offered. Thanks and I'd recommend you and Sunpeaks Grand to anyone for a get a way or a event/wedding!

—Angela - August, 2017

“ I want to let you know how impressed I am with all aspects of Cam and Donna's wedding...largely credit is due to you. Over the past months, Cam and Donna consistently commented on how promptly you responded to their inquiries. As you know, planning a wedding from a distance is challenging so your attentiveness was very much appreciated.

I was impressed with how all 'details' were cared for...from having water available on the terrace, to the set-up of the reception, the excellent meal and the all reception memorabilia neatly stored the next morning. I also commend the reception staff ...all very courteous and attentive. Many of our friends were highly complimentary of all aspects of the The Grand as a wedding venue. Your organization, conscientiousness and professionalism is highly evident Kaitlyn.

Cheryl - August 2017

“ The perfect wedding venue—our guests were transported from their village hotels by horse and carriage to a stunning ceremony location overlooking the golf course and beautiful views of Mt. Tod. Our ceremony location really captured everything about Sun Peaks that we wanted to share with our guests, who had a great time exploring the resort during their stay. We couldn't have envisioned our wedding in any other location.”
